It's Not Luck - 1st Edition - Eliyahu M. Goldratt ...

In The Goal, Eliyahu Goldratt set out in the form of a novel what he called 'the theory of constraints', broadly the principle that a convoy moves at the speed of the slowest ship into a universal organising idea, this book. As a story it's not as effective, there isn't the same sense of threat or excitement that I felt in the first book as Alex grappled to save the Despite its flaws and its limp-along pace, there is something oddly refreshing about It's Not Luck. While not all of its premises and situations—and certainly not the plot—are believable, it does demonstrate in a very powerful way the incredible strength of clear thinking, logical analysis and accurate information.
