A chopper pilot who flew many dangerous missions in Vietnam recalls his exploits on and off the ground during the Tet Offensive, the Laos incursions, and many other important operations during the war. Original.

Widely acclaimed as the Vietnam War's most highly decorated soldier, Joe Ronnie Hooper in many ways serves as a symbol for that conflict. His troubled, tempestuous life paralleled the upheavals in American society during the 1960s and 1970s, and his desperate quest to prove his manhood was uncomfortably akin to the macho image projected by three successive presidents in their \"tough\" policy in Southeast Asia. Looking for a Hero extracts the real Joe Hooper from the welter of lies and myths that swirl around his story; in doing so, the book uncovers not only the complicated truth about an American hero but also the story of how Hooper's war was lost in Vietnam, not at home. Extensive interviews with friends, fellow soldiers, and family members reveal Hooper as a complex, gifted, and disturbed man. They also expose the flaws in his most famous and treasured accomplishment: earning the Medal of Honor. In the distortions, half-truths, and outright lies that mar Hooper's medal of honor file, authors Peter Maslowski and Don Winslow find a painful reflection of the army's inability to be honest with itself and the American public, with all the dire consequences that this dishonesty ultimately entailed. In the inextricably linked stories of Hooper and the Vietnam War, the nature of that deceit, and of America's defeat, becomes clear.

When Johnny Comes Marching Home Again tells the stories of three soldiers in three wars. Three soldiers. Each someone's Johnny. Father, son. Brother, cousin. Husband, lover. Just plain buddy. Three conflicts. The Civil War, pitting North against South, Yank against Johnny Reb, brother against brother. The Vietnam War, North-South strife with Orwellian overtones. The War on Terror, Afghanistan theater. Three stories in screenplay format: \"Owl Creek Bridge,\" based on the Civil War stories of Ambrose Bierce. \"Sleeping With Charlie,\" adapted from the author's novel Solomon's Bluff. \"Dawn's Early Light,\" inspired by a Leo Tolstoy story and a cinematic rendition by Sergei Bodrov Senior.

This historical dictionary, presenting significant persons, armed units, battles and confrontations, weapons and places deals with military and political aspects of the Vietnam War and with the events that led up to it.

This book contains an incredible collection of facts and figures which is used to detail the history of the Racine Kiltie Kadets Drum and Bugle Corps. In it you will find scores, newsletters, rosters, lists of instructors, management and Parents Club Officers, formal and action photographs and details about all kinds of things related to the Kiltie Kadets. This book also is a trip through time that'll bring back memories of not only how prominent the Kiltie Kadets were as a Class C/Cadet Class Corps, but it's filled with competition results that recall the many corps and a whole segment of the drum corps activity that has disappeared into history.

This is the story of rescue in the steamy, bloody jungles of Vietnam. First as peter pilot and then as full-fledged aircraft commander, W.T. Grant routinely flew McGuire rig extractions under enemy fire, inserts into combat zones exploding with mortar shells, and night operations in the enemy-infested A Shau Valley. Though the 17th Assault Helicopter Company eventually became B Compnay, 101st Aviation Battalion, the Kingsmen will always be remembered for their courage.... From the Paperback edition.
